CHIEF OF POLICE RESIGNS. Head of Springfield Force Is Now

Sergeant Booth.

Ri-Puellic Special.

Springfield, Ill., April 22.—Scott H. Castles, for four years Chief of Police of Springfield, tendered his resignation to Mayor Phillips Tuesday, to take effect immediately. The Mayor has named Sergeant John B. Booth as Acting Chief of Police, and it is understood that the appointment will be made permanent.

DAINTY CONFIRMATION DRESS.

Fine Organdie and Lace Are Prettily Combined.

Indian linen, dimity, Swiss and organdie are suitable fabries for confirmation dresses; also soft wool fabries, such as albatross, veiling, cashmere, Henrietta and poplin. The former are trimmed with lace or tucked point d'esprit, while insertion and ruchings of satin ribbon or chiffon trim those developed in the heavier fabries. India linen, dimity and swiss are especially desirable, as they will launder nicely and make durable frocks for summer wear.

The dress illustrated is made of white organdie elaborately trimmed with lace and insertion. The waist is made entirely of inserted tucking mounted on a glove-fitted batiste lining which closes in the center back. The organdie is simply adjusted with shoulder and under-arm seams, drawn down close at the back by tiny platis, while the front is prettily bloused over a narrow the front is prettily bloused over a narrow

The pointed bertha forms a round yoke, back and front. It is finished with a full ruffle of Valenciennes surmounted by insertion. The neck is completed with a stand-tion. The neck is completed with a standing collar.

There is a slight fullness at the tops of the close-fitting two-piece sleeves, which are trimmed with lace frills.

The skirt is of circular shaping and fitted closely around the waist with tiny darts. The back is arranged in an underlying plait at each side of the center closing. Stripes of insertion extend from the belt to the top of the flounce. The lower portion of the skirt is trimmed with two circular flounces, which flare gracefully and give a full effect that is much to be desired.

The veil of tulle reaches to the flottom of the skirt.
